

A Walk in the Park

Two clowns married each other in the park. The photographer tried to get memorable images, but the clowns wouldn't cooperate. Spot all of the out-of-place elements. Answers are on the last page. (p.s. The poor photographer got squirted by all of the lapel flowers!)

A full-page wedding photograph set in a park with vibrant autumn foliage. The bride, wearing a white lace gown and veil, holds a bouquet of orange and red flowers. The groom, in a dark suit, stands beside her. The wedding party consists of four bridesmaids in orange dresses and four groomsmen in dark suits. A groomsmen on the far left is crouching on a skateboard. Above the group, a squirrel in a top hat and a black cat are perched on a large tree branch. In the background, a fountain features a yellow duck on top. The ground is covered in fallen leaves, and a small white star graphic is in the bottom right corner.
